Art Exhibition a Fun Night for All
by the MVMC Foundation

The second annual art exhibition for the Madison Valley Medical Center was a great success. It was a wonderful evening with great art and gourmet food. The artists were present throughout the evening for buyers to consult with about their art. Forty percent of the art sales went directly to the Medical Center, giving buyers a tax deduction on purchases.

For the second year in a row Punky Wright, of Wright Real Estate in Ennis, has contributed her time and talent for the benefit of the Medical Center. Punky planned and organized the event. This year, she also volunteered her culinary expertise and provided the gourmet hor d'ourves.

The Medical Center Foundation worked closely with Punky and many volunteers. We sincerely appreciate all of the hard work from those who helped, Mitch Doud, Kitty Donich, Diane Irons, The Gline's Family, The Lion's Club and The MVMC Auxiliary Women who made this such a successful evening. We'd also like to thank the artists, Mark Gibson, Heidi Gildred, Ken and Penny Hall, Ott Jones, Carol McMullin, Aaron Schuerr, Larry Zabel and Greg Shibel for their participation and donation.

Sherry Scott, a former foundation board member, donated an exquisitely decorated Christmas Tree for a silent auction. It generated considerable funds for the foundation.

For more information on the MVMC Foundation and details on how to contribute, please call the Foundation at (406) 682-6641 or 6630 or visit us on the web at www.mvmcf.org.

Aaron and Lynelle Shuerr, Dottie Fossel, Ott Jones, Elita Jones, Sibille Beimel, Heidi Gildred and Mark Gibson at the second annual Madison Valley Medical Center Art Reception and Exhibition.
